

B.Ed

SLD Girls College Of Education, Chhaproula offers a full-time two-year B.Ed program, which is a professional degree course. This program is aimed at preparing quality teachers for teaching in various secondary and senior secondary schools. At SLD College, our primary focus is on the holistic development of students so that they can become professionally competent teachers in this globalised world. To accomplish this goal, we provide an environment where students can reflect and express themselves. They are provided with ample opportunities where they can innovate and enhance their teaching skills.

For developing teaching skills of students, various innovative pedagogical techniques are used. To compete in this digital world, students are trained to use the latest technology such as smart boards, computers and social media in their teaching learning process. Training is also provided to students for preparing low-cost improvised teaching aids. For the holistic preparation of its students, special emphasis is laid on co-curricular activities.

Various activities like quizzes, extension lectures, talks, seminars and workshops are organized from time to time. Sessions on yoga and workshops on life skills, soft skills are organized so that students can understand and realize their true potential. Institute also organizes various cultural, sports and art competitions at inter and intra college levels. At SLD College students are trained to teach diverse students who require specific techniques of teaching and learning.
