

D. El. ED(Diploma In Elementary Education)

SLD Girls College Of Education offers a full-time two-year D.El.Ed. (Diploma in Elementary Education) program of teacher education. It aims to prepare competent teachers for the primary stage of education, i.e. classes I to V. The objective of this course is to prepare sensitive and humane teachers who have the teaching competencies to cater diverse needs of young learners. In SLD Girls College Of Education , our goal is to steer pupil teachers towards becoming more self-reliant and the independent students who have the passion for teaching young children.

To accomplish this goal, various opportunities are provided to students to realise their true potential. Activities like conducting thematic assemblies, storytelling sessions are done on a regular basis. Students are trained in using pedagogical techniques such as storytelling, play way method to make learning interesting and enjoyable for their learners. At SLD Girls College Of Education, we emphasise holistic development of our young primary teachers through various co-curricular activities such as sports activities, cultural activities, excursions to various resource centres such as museums, historical places, planetariums etc
